

Guidelines for Pippi Longstocking theatre workshop

These scripts are owned by Astrid Lindgren AB and are free to use during 2020 by the Swedish Institute and Swedish embassies and consulates.

Since theatre is played worldwide by groups that have contracts with Astrid Lindgren AB theatre publishers, and pay royalties, it's important that Embassy activities don't compete. Therefore, ticket sales and advertisements for performances are not allowed.

But you are free to gather children for a theatre workshop at the end of which you perform a play about Pippi Longstocking.

The script can be a bit challenging for a young actor and can of course be adapted and simplified to suit the performers. The important thing is that the children themselves have fun!